Hi Mike,

I spoke with you a year or so ago on the William Wallace Gregory line. You were kind enough to send me what you had been sent and told me you didn't have the source. I had though I emailed you later but on the Lott Gregory line but I must not have. After talking with a couple of people who have researched Elijah's family and checking some of the records myself, I found that it does not appear that William Wallace was part of the Lott/Elijah Gregory line. Elijah did have a son named William but it wasn't William Wallace Gregory. William Wallace was in Limestone Co Al in 1830, MS in 1840 then in Caldwell Parish by 1850.

Thanks,
Debi

Hi Debi

I just started delving into genealogy, so I am just now reading messages pertaining to my family. I am a Gregory from North Louisiana, and according to a pedigree done for our family, my great-grandmother's name was Nancy J. Smalling, born 19 Dec 1845 in Alabama, married to my great-grandfather William Lafayette Gregory, and daughter of William Smalling and Margaret E. Unknown. Now here's the weird part: William Lafayette Gregory's father, William Wallace (Varment) Gregory's second wife was listed as Nancy A. Smalling, but no other information was provided other than that she had been married before. The reason I am replying to your message in particular is because you mentioned that you had been corresponding with a "Seborn" Gregory in your post. I was wondering if you meant my great-uncle Sebron Gregory from Caldwell Parish. Please let me know if you can clarify things for me. The Gregory side of my family has been very difficult to research. Thanks.

Bobbie,

I'm very sorry for just now responding. I had answered when you first posted and just before entering got booted off. I got so mad I didn't get back on then and have been tied up for most of the summer.

As to the Nancy Smallings. I believe that Nancy A Smalling, second wife of William Wallace Gregory was the aunt of your Nancy J Smalling. They are found in the Blount Co census of 1850 (in her parents, William and Margaret Smallings household) near each other and then again in Caldwell Parish. Then to make matters more confusing, my g-grandmother was named Nancy C Gregory! She was the daughter of William Wallace and Nancy A Smalling Waggoner Gregory and married William David Hamilton. They are all buried in the same area of Mt Olive church cemetery.

No, the Seborn I mentioned lives in Arkansas. His lines is William Lafayette's brother James Thomas Gregory.

So my Nancy C Smalling was the half sister to your William Lafayette Gregory and I believe strongly that her mother was the aunt to your Nancy J Smalling.... Did I confused your further? :-)

Sorry again for the long delay,
Debi

Hi JoAnne!

I believe it was Catherine who had a brother by the name of Washington. My Nancy Smalling who is believed to be the sister of Wade Hampton was married to Washington Waggoner. He was the brother of Peter and some believe Catherine as Peter signed her marriage certificate. I believe (undocumented) that these were the children of William and Mary __ Smalling:

Wade
Hampton
Martha
Nancy A
Manerva
Newton

Seborn Gregory and I worked this quite a bit a couple of years ago and it seemed to be the only conclusion to draw as there weren't any other Smallings around them in Blount Co 1850. In the 1840 Blount Co census there is only one also that being William.

I believe we've exchanged emails also though it's been awhile now.

The only thing new I've gotten recently I believe has been the 1840 census for Blount Co entry.

Parish. Another oldtimer here states that the incident occured not at Pine Bluff, but at Cleo, Ark.

Be as it may, Mr. Godfrey was married to the former Vina A. Prestridge, a member of a very prominent Olla family. She was the sister of the late Mary Prestridge Nunn, wife of Lacy C. Nunn who was the first cashier of the Olla State Bank and later in 1918 the Citizens Progressive Bank was organized moved to Columbia and assumed a like position with that banking institution. Mrs. Godfrey, who was born January 2, 1879, died April 4, 1908. Her sister, Mrs. Nunn, was born April 22, 1887, and died in Columbia December 24, 1957. Her husband was a native of Kentucky, born on December 7, 1878. Mr. Nunn continued to live in this parish until after 1960 and was executive vice president of the Citizens Progressive Bank, then moved to Irwin, Texas, where he died March 30, 1966, at the home of an adopted daughter, Mary Bess Prestridge, who was niece of Mrs. Nunn. His body was brought back to Olla for burial.

"Varmint" Gregory Noted Figure In Early Days

There have been many interesting stories handed down of "picturesque" characters who have been part of Caldwell Parish since it was created back in 1838, especially among some of them residing up and down the Ouachita River, the main artery of traffic for many years. Some of them have been steamboat captains, some bear hunters and others planters, including some ministers of the gospel.

But according to legends, one of the most picturesque characters to come to this parish was none other than W. W. Gregory. Give a man a nickname and if it applies to him, whether he likes it or not, the name sticks and finally the identity of his real name is forgotten. Such is the case of "Varmint" Gregory, who was the grandfather of the late John Gregory of Vixen, Leon Gregory of Columbia and Saebon A. Gregory of Columbia Heights, as well as George W. Gregory of the Chester community.

Very little information is available concerning Varmint Gregory, but according to hand-down legends among family circles, he is thought to have been born in England, somewhere in the early 1800's, came to this country early in life and was still a young man when he came to Caldwell Parish. Only mentioned are two sons, William and George or Ben Gregory, the latter who resided in the western section of the parish where he reared a family, Mrs. Marie Haddox of Columbia Heights being a granddaughter. Another son of William Gregory not mentioned was Dr. Aus Gregory, who became a doctor and moved to Monroe to practice medicine. The youngest of the William Gregory children was S. A. Gregory, who is said to have been born in 1880 and was only eight years old when his father died in 1888, at which time he owned and operated a cotton gin above Vixen.

Varmint is said to have been married twice, his first wife being a Miss Prince, also of North Carolina. Soon after their marriage, they began their westward trek, settling in Ward 5 just south of the present Vixen community, not too far from the Ward 9 boundary line. When they first came to Caldwell Parish is not known, but it is thought that William was born in Ward 5 somewhere around 1832, being 55 years of age when he died. First record handed down concerning Varmint Gregory is that he was the boss of two crews of men engaged in floating logs down the Ouachita River. Where the logs were designated, no one seems to know. It proved quite a task, but one that Varmint was said capable of handling, as he was reputed to be quite a man physically, as can be seen in some of the feats he is credited with doing.

Of course, most of it is hearsay and handed down from mouth to mouth and from generation to generation, therefore not authentic. One story has it that the men he had working for him were divided into two camps, one being on the upper section of the Ouachita, while the other crew was camped down the river about five miles. The only means of transportation was by hoof or horse. In this case, Varmint was hoofing it between the two camps in the dark of night, and half-way between the two camps, something grabbed him around the shoulders and started squeezing. Thinking that it might be one of his crew playing a joke on him, he told whatever it was to turn him loose, but got no co-operation. Having a knife in his belt, and sensing something was wrong, Varmint proceded to use the said knife, and the strong arms around him began to relax. Not taking time to check on what it was that grabbed him, he continued on down to his camp and checked his men. They were all present and accounted for. The next morning he retracked the path the night before, and found a huge bear dead at the scene of the incident.

Another incident, Varmint is said to have heard a commotion out in his barn lot. Going out to investigate, a large panther attacked him. He called his wife to bring a light, but by the time she got out on the front porch, he had choked the animal to death. His physical strength was known all over the countryside; in fact, although not a legal act no doubt, but by common acquiesence to fair practice or not, it was considered a breach of etiquette for Varmint to hit another human being or animal, fair fight or otherwise.

The old Gregory place is located in Ward 5. No sign of the old homestead is visible. Nearby, a N. A. Diffy of West Monroe, nearing 80 and three-quarter Cherokee Indian, has a camp. Being familiar with the surrounding territory, he pointed out the old Gregory Cemetery where Varmint and his first wife, their two sons and their wives, as well as other members of the family are buried. There are many mounds visible, but no markers over the graves. To get to the old cemetery, you pass the old Funderburk place, now covered with huge trees. Mr. Funderburk is the grandfather of the First Lady of Louisiana (1971), the wife of Gov. John J. McKeithen, as well as other prominent citizens of the area.

Three of Varmint's sons, John, Leon and Saebon, settled on farms in the northwestern section of Caldwell Parish, above Vixen on the Mt. Olive Baptist Church road. They are all buried in the cemetery there, just over the Caldwell line into Ouachita Parish. The other son, Aus is buried in a cemetery in that city. Most of Ben Gregory's children are buried in the Old Hebron Cemetery on State Route 4, between Vixen and Sikes, among them being Samuel G. Gregory (1879-1956) and George W. Gregory, born October 21, 1883, and died October 24, 1933.

Saebon A. Gregory was married to the former Artie Railey, daughter of William Jeff Railey (1864-1933) and Argent Butler Railey (1866-1939), who are buried in the Palestine Cemetery in Ward 5. They came from Mississippi when Mrs. Gregory was only seven years old. Although in her 80's, she has an uncle, Armster Butler, residing at The Haven , who is past 90. Mrs. Gregory recalls the only railroad Ward 5 ever had, the Ouachita North & Western, out of Clarks, which was part of the facilities of the Louisiana

Central Lumber Co., now liquidated; naturally, spur lines ran out in all directions of the ward, while the main line swept on to Tremont on the Illinois Central. One line ran only a few yards north of the old Gregory Cemetery. According to Leo Gregory, son of S. A. Gregory, states that his father seriously considered placing markers on the graves. But after more more than a hundred years, who knows where who is buried? The late John Gregory heirs still retain the acreage Mr. Gregory settled on, but only one son, Odie (Bud) Gregory, now resides in that neck of the woods, so to speak.

Varmint Gregory's second wife, Nancy Gregory, lies buried in the Mt. Olive Cemetery and the marker over her grave reads that she was born on May 8, 1823, and died March 10, 1899. Also buried in the same cemetery are Floyd Leon Gregory (1882-1948), his wife, Clemmie Taylor Gregory (1892-1952); Perry E. Gregory, born and died in 1912; Harris Gregory (1895-1898), son of S. A. Gregory; William Loyce Gregory, 1917-1929; John N. Gregory, born June 11, 1870, died February 15, 1850; his wife, Lillie Whitlock Gregory, born October 9, 1876, and died May 16, 1964.

Viola,

I've got this Brother's Keeper sort of figured out. Below is all I have on the Gregory's. I don't seem to have anything for a Joseph Gregory. I hope what I have below will be of some help to you. If you have any connection to this line, please let me know.

Best Regards,
Allen

Searching for the parents of William Wallace Gregory who was b abt 1810 in NC.His family had migrated to Limestone Co AL by the early 1830s where he married Mary Ann McCarty. William migrated to Desotto Co MS by the 1840 census then into Caldwell Parish, La by 1850 where he married Nancy A Smalling Waggoner after the death of Mary Ann. I just know he has to be connected to the Byrd and Hardin Gregory lines of Limestone but I just can't find the documentation. Any help would be greatly appreciated!

Which of W.W. Gregory line do you come from? I'm from his 1st wife Mary Ann McCarty, 5th son, James Thomas Gregory. Was you at the reunion last year in Caldwell Parish? I do not beleive W.W. Gregory (Varmit) father was Elijah or grandfather is Lott. My E-mail is seborn@cswnet.com.

Hi Mike,

I spoke with you a year or so ago on the William Wallace Gregory line. You were kind enough to send me what you had been sent and told me you didn't have the source. I had though I emailed you later but on the Lott Gregory line but I must not have. After talking with a couple of people who have researched Elijah's family and checking some of the records myself, I found that it does not appear that William Wallace was part of the Lott/Elijah Gregory line. Elijah did have a son named William but it wasn't William Wallace Gregory. William Wallace was in Limestone Co Al in 1830, MS in 1840 then in Caldwell Parish by 1850.

Thanks,
Debi
